Pain of ostracism can be deep, long-lasting -- ScienceDaily

Since 1998, there have been six main types of maintained (state-funded) school in England: Academy schools, established by the 1997-2010 Labour Government to replace poorly-performing community schools in areas of high social and economic deprivation. Their start-up costs are typically funded by private means, such as entrepreneurs or NGOs, with running costs met by Central Government and, like ...
