The City Reader Summary & Study Guide - BookRags.com
The city, as the noted urban sociologist Robert Park once wrote, is: "man's most consistant and on the whole, his most successful attempt to remake the world he lives in more after his heart's desire. But, if the city is the world which man created, it is the world in which he is henceforth condemned to live. Thus, indirectly, and without any clear sense of the nature of his task, in making ...
